

The Behavioral Health Awareness Art Show is organized by representatives from governmental agencies and private non-profit organizations.

Special thanks to George Ciscle, Curator-in-Residence at MICA, and Izabel Galliera, Professor of Art and Art History at McDaniel College, for assisting in the artist selection process.

Behavioral Health Awareness Art Show

Reception: Monday, April 24, 5:00-7:00pm

Hosted by the First Lady of Maryland, Mrs. Yumi Hogan

An exhibition featuring 20 Maryland artists using their art to challenge stigma surrounding behavioral health issues and raise public awareness in Maryland:

Shelley Amsel	Shannon Gerrity	Christian McCarroll
Raymond Bartock	Phyllicia Ghee	Anthony Ness
Ben Cricchi	Robin Gilliam	George F. Spicka
Margaret Dowell	Linda Lou Hubshman	John Viles
Joanna Dvorsky	Sam Jesner	John Wise
Dan Ellis	Claudia Krizay	Jane Young
Gloria Garrett	Michelle LaBonte

Please join us as we celebrate with food and refreshments, live music, resource information, The Walking Gallery, a special presentation by Mrs. Hogan, and a community dialogue on the role of art in healing with the exhibiting artists moderated by the founder of the New Day Campaign, Peter Bruun.

Lowe House Office Building
6 Bladen Street
Annapolis, MD 21401

*The event is free and open to the public

Click here for driving directions and click here for a list of pay parking garages.

All adults must bring photo ID for entry into the House Office Building*

